

UNITED KINGDOM

A JOURNEY THROUGH TIME AND CULTURE

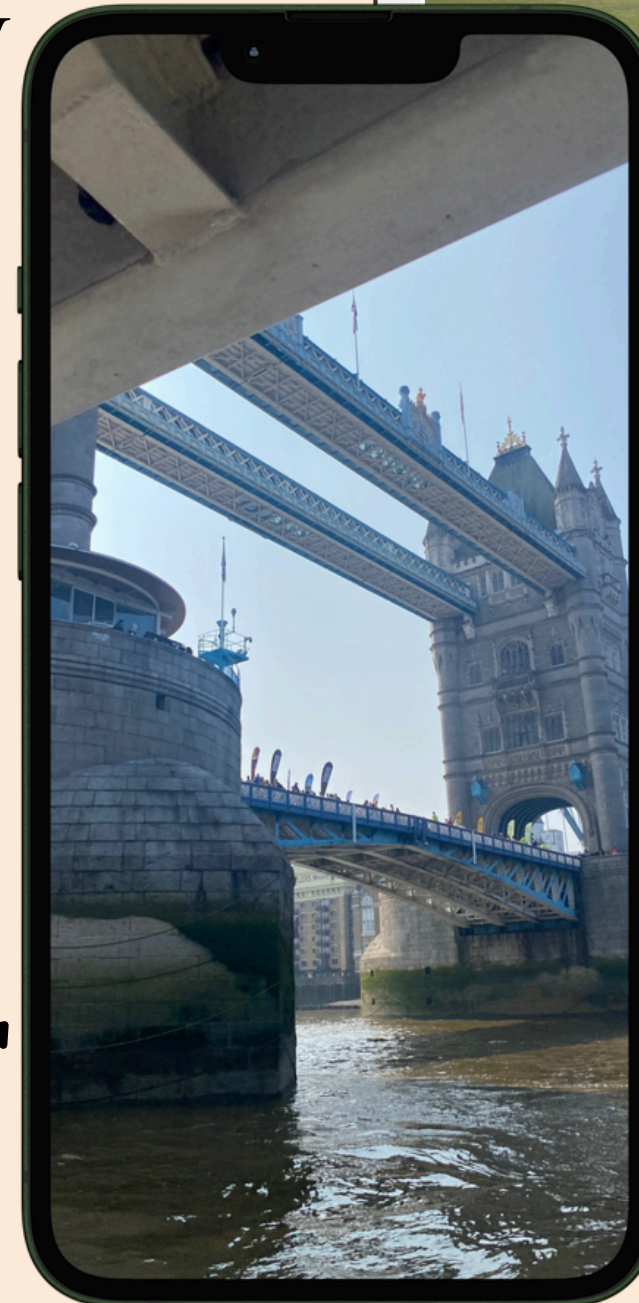

HAVRÁNKOVÁ, JANOTOVÁ, GREGOROVÁ, GÁLOVÁ

DAY ONE

Our journey started on a boat. We were on our way to visit Greenwich, the prime meridian. On the way there, we saw Tower bridge and several skyscrapers and other interesting buildings.

We had to fight our way through the ongoing marathon, but in the end we got on the top of Greenwich and saw the prime meridian. There was a beautiful view on London.

GREENWICH

Then we visited the Big Ben. It's even more mesmerizing than we see on the pictures.

After that, we went to take a ride on the London Eye. The view was amazing, everything seemed so small when we were high up in the air. We could practically see the whole London.

FAMILY

After a long day full of sightseeing, we finally got to meet our families. We got to spend 2 nights at a house of a very sweet and kind lady Sam. She has a dog named Nova and a cat. She was very happy when we gifted her the presents we brought, she even hugged us. For dinner she prepared chicken with chips (fries) and salad.

DAY TWO

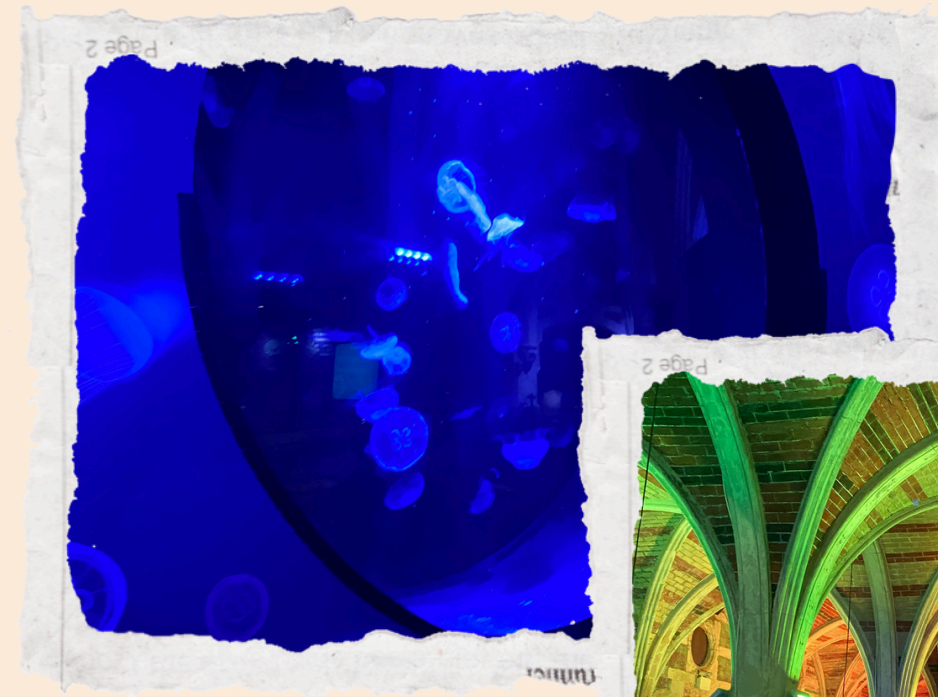

On the day two we visited the Seven Sisters. It's a beautiful coastline with the waves of the sea splashing onto the shore.

We walked a kilometer to a lighthouse and the view from there was even more fascinating. After we took a lot of photos we went all the way down to the water.

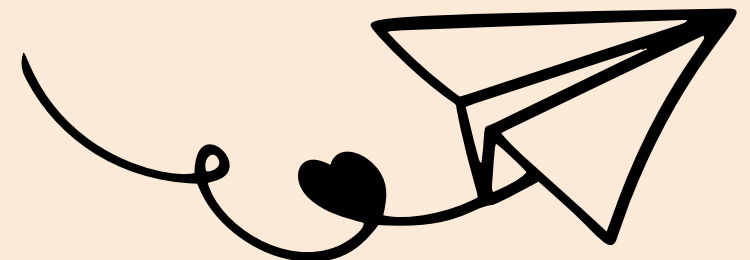

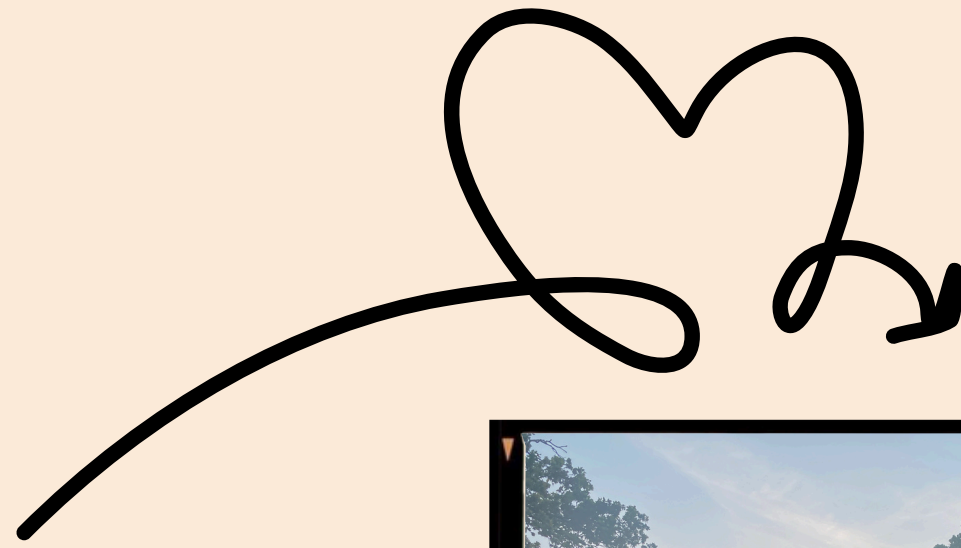

After Seven Sisters we visited the oldest aquarium in London. The fishes there were really pretty and interesting. It was fun and we really enjoyed it.

Then at the “meeting” point at the beach, we split up into groups going into different directions, so we could go eat food, go shopping, buy souvenirs or take beautiful pictures.

EVENING

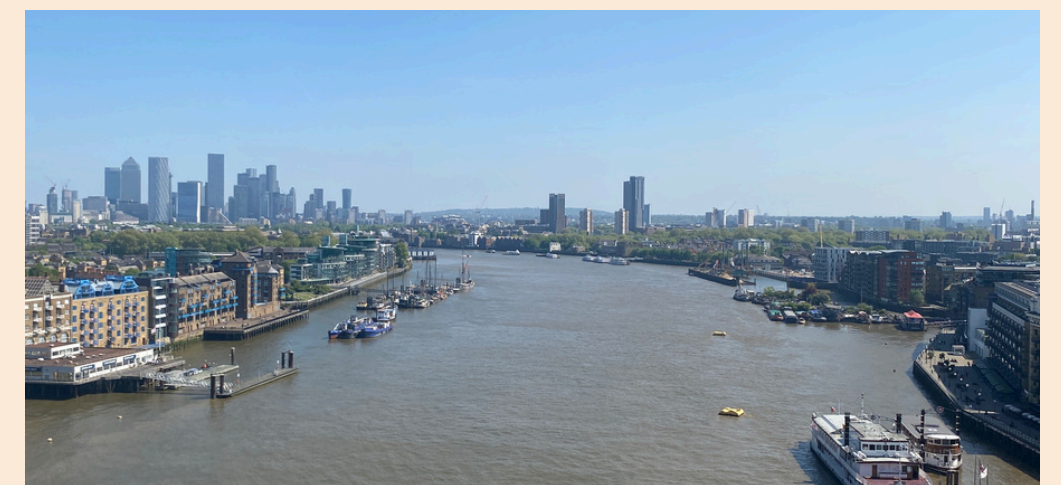

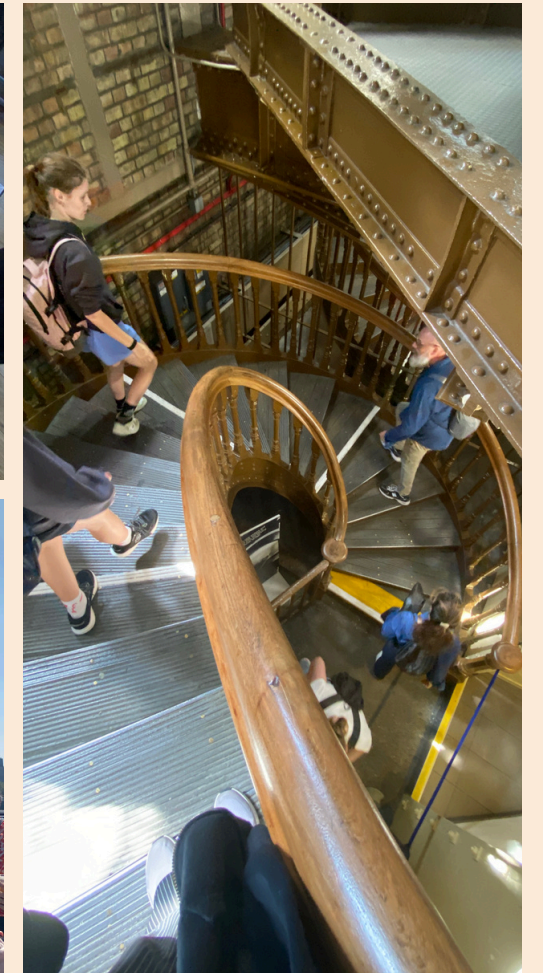

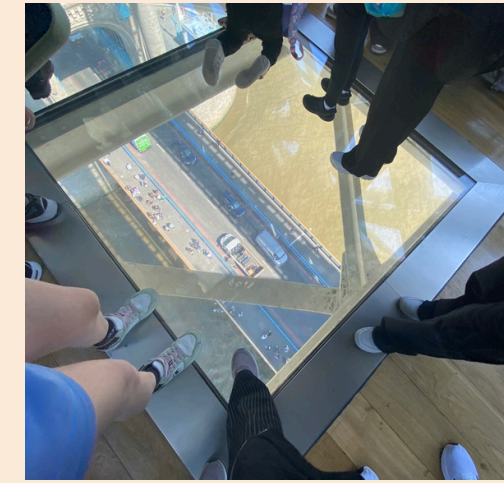

It was evening again and our sweet lady, Sam, picked us up. On our way to her house, she said: “We will stop at a local store to buy some pizza, so we can have it for dinner.” We arrived home, ate our delicious pizza, talked to Sam for a while and then went shower and finally went to bed after our beautiful yet exhausting day.

DAY THREE

We woke up, finished packing our things and Sam drove us back to the meeting point. And that meant we needed to say goodbye to her and Nova.

On our last day in the UK we visited Tower of London and after that Tower Bridge. Both of the monuments looked absolutely stunning and the inside was even more prettier. The whole trip we ended with a ride in a double-decker bus.
